@cel We would even be willing to help restore the entire cel network if they needed it. There is 1.7m people effected by this issue. If we can help make them whole, we will. We don't need anything in return. I was never pro Alex I would have loved to see Alex working on restoring the network, as unless you understood every aspect of this industry, instead of recovering a project, you would delay trying to make sense of it, then will end up destroying that project. It is also why I would love for them to give Sbf a chance to fix things.

That isn't to say they shouldn't be punished, if they did wrong, it is to say, that in this industry not many people understand how it operates, so the best person to fix the issues is usually the person who caused it. I would rather see 1.7m people recovered than 1 person in jail. So if anyone from cel really wants help with tech to advance cel, if they are working on making people whole, I will pledge our entire teams support in upgrading the technology to put cel at the forefront of the space.

The fact that not even the Celtard squeezers want their Cel shitcoin back should tell you something about Cel token and their network.

Celsius inflated their user numbers, stuffed fake accounts with one cel token and 2/3rds of all accounts only had dust in them. It was a scam and people got ripped off.

You should buy every Cel token for about $500, start your own little network and have your Cel squirts sandbox where you can perform beastiality with each other

I understand what you're saying, he was the Fall Guy with the brains. The thing is, he knew what he was doing & hurt a lot of ppl. But, if he can make it up by repaying said ppl, & repent, that's interesting. 😊 Like a casino hiring the guy who beat the system 2 oversee the room.

I'm looking at the source from which this suggestion is coming. @nugenmediahub has been through his own fire & come out the other end with integrity & credibility. He is also helping our cause immensely. NOW, if someone like you suggested it, I'd run the other way 🙌 #CEL81

Well someone like me would never suggest a fraudulent company and crypto be restored, by people that don't understand what integrity and credibility means if it would hit them in the face. Just saying! 😊.

What is the liquidation value for CEL?
Pure Custody (100%) = 0.815
General Custody (72.5%) = 0.587
General Earn Claims (47.4%) = 0.386

All values relating to any sort of distribution must comply with the liquidation analysis. This goes for any distribution mechanic.
